

Make and Mend

THE NATIONAL MUSEUM
ROYAL NAVY
PORTSMOUTH

The Navy needs you!

At The National Museum of the Royal Navy,
Portsmouth Historic Dockyard, Portsmouth.

FREE Craft workshops

Great at using a needle and thread, or don't know where to start? Calling embroidery enthusiasts! Then our free sessions are for you! Following on from the naval tradition of 'Make a Mend', join us for these FREE craft sessions in the Victory Learning Centre, National Museum of the Royal Navy, Portsmouth Historic Dockyard. Help us celebrate the 250th Anniversary of HMS Victory's launch, 70th Anniversary of HMS Alliance's launch and to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the First World War. There will also be a chance to look at some of the WW1 embroideries that are not normally on display!. Experts are also welcome and we encourage you to share your skills with the beginners in the group. A limited range of materials and equipment provided. Tea & coffee will be provided

Join us at these relaxed and informal sessions to learn how to knit, crochet and embroider. Have the chance to discover some of the embroidery items that aren't on display and help us to prepare for the knit in public day on 13th June.

Monday 9th March, 20th April and 18th May 2pm – 4.30pm AND

Saturday 13th June to celebrate worldwide knit in public day!

To book: Call 02392 727595

TO BOOK CONTACT US ...

Free, booking essential. Please bring your own sewing needles and knitting needles with you. We do have very limited range of equipment to use. Please contact 02392 727595 or email community@nmrn.org.uk for details and to book